“Indiana University Fiscal Year 2018” info graphic

This info graph illustrates the statistics reflecting the 2018 fiscal year for Indiana University.

The headline of the graphic reads, “Investing in IU and Indiana.” The headline is on a red background, with an arrow pointing up next to it.

Also, on the red background is a subhead that reads, “A review of Indiana University’s record-breaking fiscal year 2018.”

Beneath the subhead begins a white background. Near the top of it, the graphic reads “IU secured nearly $1 billion in external funding and private philanthropy in fiscal year 2018.”

Below that are three figures that are connected by dotted lines. The figures read:

- A record $401.3 million in external funding for research and other activities. This figure is illustrated by an outline of a microscope.
  - Below this figure is a blue arrow that leads to the following statement: “Highest total for any university in Indiana.”
- A record $203.1 million in total nongovernmental grants. This figure is illustrated by an outline of an envelope with money in it.
  - Below this figure is a blue arrow that leads to the following statement: “21% increase from fiscal year 2017.”
- A record $347 million in private and philanthropic contributions. This figure is illustrated by an outline of two hands shaking.
  - Below this figure is a blue arrow that leads to the following statement: “Fifth consecutive record fiscal year.”

At the bottom of the graphic is the Indiana University logo with its tagline “Fulfilling the Promise” along with the IU trident.
