

The Book Nook

for

Eats and Drinks

BONWIT TELLER & Co.

NEW YORK

for

HORLICK’S

FEATURE EVERY DAY

and promote'd. He could not have done his work without applying it to the sky and the paths within them, not merely for their sub-languages: “Any subject properly speech and as prose. The transi-cipings, for many of those who thought and expression. The transiany form of government, and found ment of Greek, said: “While this is foundations of the arts of Greece, all forms of government, and found they grew. The leaves are great, large

The country out there is just one se-

Bloomington Indiana Daily Student

the "Hill" for three years, determined toward the hill of desire. At the other breathtaking dance of the day into the

The political history of Greece is baseball schedule.

face. The king of grapplers has met first. Athens maintained a pure de-

Many of the things that are set forth after Easter vacation. At thereof should be eager to learn more

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

Greek and Latin are valuable in

the “Hill.” To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

the “Hill.” To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.

Pochhammer, A.—Beethoven's Sym-

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

"Greek and Latin are valuable in

"Their chief greatness, however, lay

The impression is left on one’s mind

the "Hill." To go to the “Hill” one takes

Mr. Layton, F. G.—The Politicians.