

Naturalization Ceremony Infograph

The graphic represents the statistics of the naturalization ceremony taking place at IUPUI on April 27, 2017.

The headline of the graphic reads “Life-Changing Ceremony” with a silhouette of the United States and the American flag next to it.

The subhead reads “IUPUI and Chancellor Nasser H. Paydar will host a naturalization ceremony on campus April 27, 2017.”

Beneath the subhead are two boxes with statistics from the ceremony. The boxes are divided by a vertical bar, separating the two. The box on the left reads “100 people from 39 countries will become citizens of the United States. Next to the text, there is a silhouette/icon of the world.

Dividing the two boxes is a double arrow icon, showing the two statistics are connected.

The box to the right reads “Joining 84 plus million U.S. immigrants and first-generation Americans. Next to the text, there is three silhouettes/icons of people.

Beneath those two boxes are another set of two boxes with additional statistics regarding the ceremony.

The box to the left reads “First naturalization ceremony ever to take place at a university in Indianapolis.” Next to the text, there is a silhouette/icon of the downtown Indianapolis skyline.

The boxes are divided by a vertical bar, separating the two.

The box to the right reads “Watch live: broadcast.iu.edu, Thursday, April 27 at 10 a.m. Next to the text, there is a silhouette/icon of a camera.

Beneath those two boxes is the last section of the graphic. It includes a photo of IUPUI’s Chancellor, Nasser H. Paydar, along with a quote from him that reads, “We at IUPUI requested the honor of hosting this milestone event because of our commitment to the city of Indianapolis and its people, because we value diverse voices from all over the world, and because inclusion is one of our core values.” Next to the text, there are two oversized quotation mark icons to represent the chancellor’s quote.
