

Indiana University's Campus Enrollment 2017 graphic

The headline of the graphic reads "Indiana University's Campus Enrollment 2017" with the IU trident logo to the left.

Beneath the headline are four statistics that read:

- 112,000+ enrolled students; illustrated by an image of a student in their cap and gown
- 1.3M+ credit hours; illustrated by an image of books
- 70% are Indiana residents; illustrated by an outline of the state of Indiana
- 20,053 are minority students; illustrated by an outline of two people

Below the statistics is a sub-head that reads "Breakdown of total official enrollment at the seven IU-administered campuses."

A graphical chart illustrates the breakdown of students at each campus with silhouettes of people, color coated by campus:

- IU Bloomington: 43,710 students; 46.16%
- IUPUI: 29,791 students; 31.46%
- IU East: 3,490 students; 3.69%
- IU Kokomo: 3,029 students; 3.20%
- IU Northwest: 4,055 students; 4.28%
- IU South Bend: 5,385 students; 5.69%
- IU Southeast: 5,238 students; 5.53%

Underneath the chart, is a final sentence that specifies that the number of enrolled students at Indiana University includes high school students enrolled in dual-credit and students at IPFW.

An additional note is listed that says "Includes degree- and non degree-seeking students, but does not include high school students enrolled in dual credit."
