

Water system graphic

The first graphic image is a simplified version of a water system as drawn by experts. The oval-shaped illustration shows labels for the steps of the water cycle, starting at the left with "source" and moving in clockwise fashion to "drinking treatment," "distribution," "household use," "collection," "wastewater treatment" and "return to environment."